Residents and Others Present

Chris Bunsman, Tom Downey, Edna Gunn, Kathy Penske, Guadalupe Ramierez, Tommie Taylor, Mary Wallace
Officer Brent Cook and Sgt. Michael Gonzales (Pct. 4 Constables office)

Call to Order

Mr. White called the meeting to order at 7:00 PM, acknowledging there was not a quorum.

Constable's Report

Officer Brent Cook introduced his new supervisor, Sgt. Michael Gonzales. He then presented a written report of activity in Prestonwood for March 2016. They answered questions from the audience and noted there had been no significant criminal activity during the period.

Open Forum

Ms. Ramierez, as President of the Prestonwood Flyers Swim Team, presented a brief update on the status of the team. She noted there are about 50 swimmers registered.

Ms. Gunn noted the American flag provided by the Cypress Creek band should be placed nearer the entrance to the subdivision.

Ms. Bunsman noted an increase of traffic on Schroeder and Hargrave roads making egress difficult.

Ms. Penske provided an update on the home on Wimbledon owned by Wells Fargo bank.

Director's Reports

Director White reported the following:

- Bug spraying would continue three times per week.
- The pools are being prepared for a Memorial Day opening.
- Residents will be able to vote for new directors online, by signed proxy, or in person at the HOA annual meeting on May 5.

The meeting was adjourned at 8:00 pm.
