COUNTY OF HARRIS

I, Christine M. Collins, Secretary of Prestonwood Forest Maintenance

Association, do hereby certify that in the open session of a properly noticed meeting of the Board of Directors of the Association, duly called and held on the 16th day of September, 2021, with at least a quorum of the Board members being present and remaining throughout, and being duly authorized to transact business, the following Display of Religious Items Policy was duly approved by at least a majority vote of the members of the Board present at the meeting.

RECITALS:

1. 2. Section 202.018 of the Texas Property Code ("Code") gives owners and residents certain statutory rights to install religious items subject to the right of the Association to adopt certain rules and regulations regulating the religious items and placement.
3. The Board of Directors ("Board") of the Association desires to adopt a display of religious items policy consistent with the provisions of Section 202.018 of the Code.
4. This Policy replaces and supersedes any previously recorded or implemented policy that addresses the subjects contained herein including, but not limited to, Section 6 of the Guidelines relating to Rain Barrels and Rain Harvesting Systems, Solar Energy Devices, Storm and Energy Efficient Shingles, Flags, and Religious Items for Prestonwood Forest Maintenance Association attached to the Supplemental Notice of Dedicatory Instruments for Prestonwood Forest Maintenance Association recorded in the Official Public Records of Real Property of Harris

POLICY:

Owners and residents are generally permitted to display or affix one or more religious items on the owner's or resident's property or dwelling, the display of which is motivated by the owner's or resident's sincere religious belief.

ARA Application Required. Before a religious display contemplated by the Code is displayed or affixed on an owner's or resident's property, an architectural review authority (the "ARA") application must be submitted to the Association and approved in writing in accordance with Association's Dedicatory Instruments. The following information must be included with the application:

- a. Type and description of religious display;
- b. Site plan indicating the location of the proposed religious display with respect to any applicable building line, right-of-way, setback or easement on the owner's or resident's property.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, one or more religious items displayed or affixed on the entry of an owner's or resident's dwelling, not exceeding twenty-five (25) square inches, shall not require ARA approval. All other religious displays shall require ARA approval as set forth above.

The display or affixing of a religious item on the owner's or resident's property or dwelling is prohibited under the following circumstances:

1. The item threatens the public health or safety;
2. The item violates a law other than a law prohibiting the display of religious speech;
3. The item contains language, graphics or any display that is patently offensive to a passerby for reasons other than its religious content;
4. The item is installed on property:
  - a. owned or maintained by the Association; or
  - b. owned in common by members of the Association.
5. The item violates any building line, right-of-way, setback or easement that applies to the religious item pursuant to a law or the Association's dedicatory instruments; or
6. The item is attached to a traffic control device, streetlamp, fire hydrant or utility sign, pole or fixture.

The ARA may, in its discretion, determine that certain seasonal religious displays do not require the written approval of the ARA.

Any installation not in compliance with this Policy will be considered a violation of the dedicatory instruments governing the subdivision.

I hereby certify that I am the duly elected, qualified and acting Secretary of the Association and that the foregoing Display of Religious Items Policy was approved by not less than a majority vote of the Board as set forth above and now appears in the books and records of the Association, to be effective upon recording in the Official Public Records of Real Property of Harris County, Texas.
